Sub: Notice of Disconnection under Section 56 (1) of The Electricity Act, 2003 against supply of electricity.

Dear Sir/Madam

This is to inform that there is an outstanding defaulted amount of Rs. 8888.67 as on date towards electricity consumption charges against the above said connection.

Therefore a notice under Section 56(1) of the Electricity Act, 2003 is hereby given to you that unless the said amount is paid by within 15 days from the date of receipt of this notice, the power supply shall be disconnected without any further notice. Further, on such disconnection supply of power shall not be restored until said dues together with a sum of Rs. 400.00 plus taxes towards the reconnection fees is paid. It is further informed that this notice shall be in force even if any dues is not paid towards the current month's electricity charges after the receipt of this Disconnection Notice

In this context kindly note that in case of any unauthorized reconnection of a disconnected supply of the above referred connection the same shall be punishable under Section 135, 136 & 138 of the Electricity Act 2003 with imprisonment up to three years and / or with fine of up to Rs. 10,000/-, in addition to above said amount already due.

N.B: In case you have paid the dues as mentioned above and/or any stay order has been obtained from any Hon'ble Court/Learned Forum, please ignore this Notice. On such case, either produce the money receipt of such payment at the time of Disconnection, or hand over the order to our authorized officer of TPWODL.

This is a computer generated notice and hence does not require signature.
